A large, illuminated sign for the musical '42nd Street'. The numbers '42' are in a large, glowing yellow font with 'ND' in a smaller font to the right. The word 'STREET' is in a white, bold font on a red, curved banner background. The entire sign is set against a dark background with a city skyline at night.

"Starry-eyed Peggy Sawyer arrives in New York City in search of her big break. She catches the eye of legendary director Julian Marsh and gets hired as a chorus girl in his next big-budget extravaganza ... much to the dislike of the show's star, Dorothy Brock. But when the leading lady literally breaks a leg, Peggy might have a shot at stardom.

Will a star be born? Find out in this love letter to the stage packed with glitz, glamour, dazzling choreography, and sensational songs like "Lullaby of Broadway," "We're in the Money," and "Shuffle Off To Buffalo." Don't miss the celebrated Broadway musical that has captivated audiences on 42nd Street, and around the world."

We'll also get together for an early dinner after the show.
